More about HSBC Everyday Extras⁴

Your account has many features including Everyday Extras⁴ which you will have access to when you deposit $2,000 or more into your account each calendar month. Lets take a look at how it works.

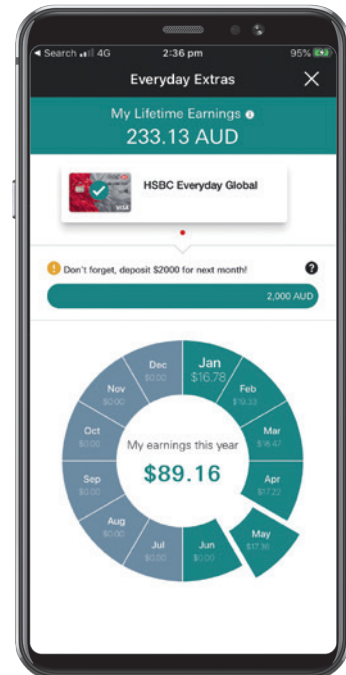

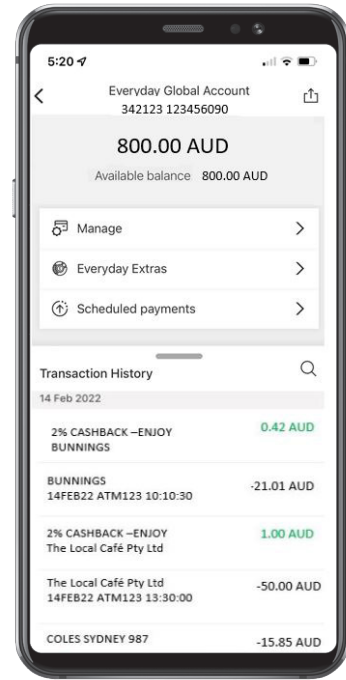

Meet James. He's opened an Everyday Global Account and is using it not only as his everyday bank account but also to save and spend in foreign currency.

See how James is earning up to $50 cashback each month⁵ on his everyday spending

Every calendar month, James deposit $2,000 into his Everyday Global Account, which automatically unlocks the benefits of Everyday Extras⁴. Now, every time James makes an eligible contactless purchase under $100, he will earn 2% cashback⁵. That's real money back in his bank account.

James can also track and see how much cashback he has earned on each purchase. Using the Everyday Extras dashboard on the HSBC Mobile Banking app, he can also see how much he has saved each month, over the year and since opening his account.

To calculate how much you could be earning go to hsbc.com.au/everydayglobal

Holding Foreign Currencies in your Account

Your HSBC Everyday Global Account is more than a day to day account. You can use it to buy, save and spend in up to 10 currencies. Lets take a look at how to do this.

When James opened his account, he opened it in AUD, USD, GBP and NZD. He has family in England and is going to purchase a present for them from a UK site using the GBP he has in his Everyday Global Account.

1. James logs on to the HSBC Mobile Banking app and checks the funds he has in GBP. He currently has 165 GBP in his account.
2. James pays for his purchase of 85 GBP using his Everyday Global Visa Debit Card online and, because he has sufficient money in GBP, the money is deducted from his GBP account.
3. In James's account summary screen, his GBP account is now showing 80 GBP post this purchase.

More information

Why is my current balance and available balance different?

The available balance shows funds that are ready for you to use straight away. The current balance may include card authorisations or pending transactions waiting to be processed.

What are Pending Transactions?

Pending Transaction occurs when a payment has been authorised but is still waiting for merchant confirmation. This amount is then deducted from your available balance, not your account balance. The transaction will show as pending on your account until the payment process is complete. It generally take up to 3 -10 business days to process.

If you let a merchant use your card for pre-authorised payments (such as a security deposit for a hotel booking or car hire), the money will be deducted from your available balance and the merchant can hold this money for up to 31 days.
